Our Story

The Orangery is an exquisite setting for a romantic and memorable wedding.

Nestled in its beautiful gardens, it offers a picturesque and tranquil ambiance that will transport you and your guests to a world of timeless elegance. Dating back to 1840s the Orangery was originally used for growing exotic fruit and plants by the Chetwynd-Talbot family and subsequently the Earls of Shrewsbury.

The restoration by the Friends of Ingestre Orangery Charitable Trust has made this exclusive and intimate building, a beautiful, contemporary space for your special day.

As you step inside, the beautiful interior that combines classic charm with modern sophistication, the spacious and airy Orangery with its vast windows, allow in natural light creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.

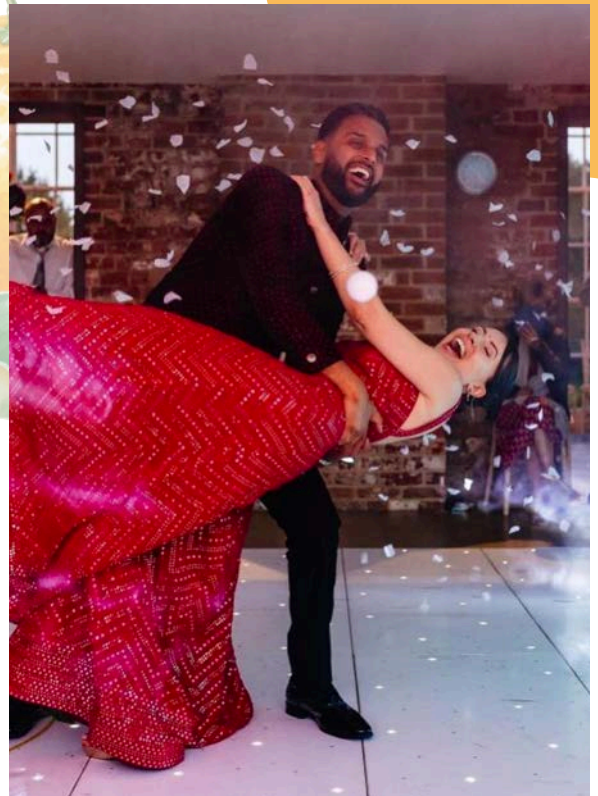

Your perfect day

The gardens, offer a truly romantic backdrop for your wedding photography and whether you choose to celebrate with your loved ones on the long walk or inside, the Orangery is the perfect place to create lifelong memories.

Our dedicated recommended wedding planner and suppliers, we are committed to making your special day one that's stress-free. and unforgettable. From the moment you arrive.

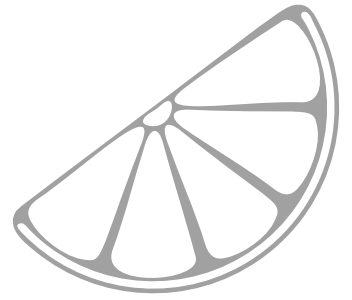

Until the last dance of the night, this historic grade II listed venue will provide you with a wedding experience that you and your guests will cherish for years to come
